

Recurrent travels to the underground music haven in India right around his late teens commenced an incessant love affair between music and Aditya. A young devotee since, and now a rising star in the underground electronic music circuit in India, Aditya Kulharia is adored by both fans and fellow artists for his smashing and soulful DJ sets.

An ardent underground music fan since his 20s, Aditya is a deep/ progressive house and techno music producer/ DJ, currently based out of Chandigarh, India. His style is immersive and bent towards melodic and deep sounds with smooth resonant percussions creating uplifting and hypnotic vibes on the dance floor.

An engineer turned producer and DJ, Aditya had his early influences from artists like John O'Flaherty, Above & Beyond and Jody Wisternoff amongst others across festivals like EVC, Sunburn and Supersonic. His professional journey in music began once he completed his Ableton live certification from Point Blank Music School, London and went on to hold residency for one of the best party places in Goa - Café Lilliput at Anjuna beach, famous for its parties that shut down at sunrise or sometimes, not even at sunrise!

Behind the decks, Aditya gained significant adoration for his music from not only listeners but fellow artists as well. During the last 2 years, Aditya has opened the night for many renowned artists like Praveen Achary, Shaun Moses, Christ Burstein, Vincent Rydell, Cosmonaut, Alex Ferrer, Denis A, Varun Fernandes and Innellea amongst others.

A highly passionate and energetic soul, Aditya is currently focusing on his own productions and free-lancing gigs at the hottest venues and clubs.
